MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Proposed Expansion CIA Records Facility. [REDACTED]

25X1A6a

25X1A6a

1. Reference is made to recent discussions with [REDACTED] on this subject and the cost estimate recently furnished by the Real Estate and Construction Division, OL (RECD). 25X1A9a

2. [REDACTED] called 15 March to advise us that they had held the scheduled briefing with Mr. Bannerman from 1500 hours to 1730 hours Wednesday, 13 March. The briefing was also attended by Messrs. [REDACTED]

3. It was agreed at the meeting that for present planning purposes they would use the [REDACTED] estimate furnished by RECD, and the item may be included in the 1970 budget. 25X1A1

4. They also concluded that it would be desirable to ask RECD to have an appropriate feasibility study made, using an Architect and Engineer firm or other source. They also asked the following questions requiring a feasibility study:

a. What do we get as a result?

b. How long will it take?

c. What will it generally encompass?

5. [REDACTED] said that RECD can expect to receive a request to have such a feasibility study made. [REDACTED] later called [REDACTED] and asked for this information.)

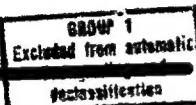

25X1A9a

6. I told [REDACTED] that in a feasibility study we would normally receive comparative budget cost estimates of the alternatives investigated, single-line drawings of the buildings considered feasible, and a narrative report analyzing the alternatives and the problems involved, and the recommended choice as to the preferable solution.
